

Quality Policy

Quality Policy

Elastomer Solutions Group, as full-service supplier, is committed with exceeding customer expectations, to deliver the best quality and services and to fully support our customers.

By moving to carbon neutrality to revert the climate changes, and by promoting the highest value for the company and all its stakeholders, we are committed within an organization with transversal continuous improvement promoting the participation of everyone.

For that, our goals are:

- Focus on customer expectations by delivering zero defect, delivering according its needs, complying with standards and requirements, being an “A” supplier
- To promote innovation and develop digitization and automation to increase value to market and sustainability
- To develop robust processes and ensuring they are consistently efficient and effective
- To promote with all our relevant business partners and supply chain to also commit to the environmental protection
- Full empowerment of our employees

2024 April

Environmental Policy

Environmental Policy

Elastomer Solutions Group is committed to the environmental protection. With the aim of minimizing our environmental impact, we implement continuous measures to protect and respect the environment through prevention of pollution and other impacts arising from our activities, products and services.

Our goal is to reduce the effects of climate change and to promote a zero-carbon footprint.

For that, we are focus on:

- Efficient use of environmental resources and energy
- To avoid waste, to minimize production of waste and effluents, giving priority in adding value to waste
- Recycling in all areas of our business
- To comply with all legal environment requirements or other regulations
- To promote zero greenhouse gas emissions reducing emissions across the supply chain

2024 April

Health and Safety Policy

Health and Safety Policy

Elastomer Solutions Group is committed to maintain and improve a healthy and safe work environment giving high priority to safety in the workplace. For us people is first, so Elastomer Solutions aims to maximize its Health and Safety performance by eliminating hazards and act proactively in continuous improvement.

This policy is strengthened by a “Zero Accident” safety culture and involvement of everyone.

For that, we are focus on:

- Ensuring the fulfilment of legal requirements and contractual conditions
- Providing safe and healthy working conditions for the prevention of work-related injury and ill health which are appropriate to the nature of the H&S risks
- Ensuring consultation and participation of employees, or their representatives, as one of the basis for valuing human resources, consolidating competences and continuously reinforcing the organization values;
- evaluate risks and minimizing hazards, reducing incidents and its frequency/ severity

2024 April